JAPAN SHIPPING ARMS TO MEXICO

Ship Load Received Dec. 24th, Under Escort Of Cruiser

San Antonio, Jan. 12.—Government reports that a recent big shipment of arms and ammunition to Mexico was escorted by a Japanese cruiser have been sent here for the information of the Senate Committee investigating the Mexican situation.

That Mexico had received war supplies from Japan and that official and unofficial Mexico lately has been entertaining with a show of much enthusiasm officers and men from a Japanese warship was known, but until today agents who are gathering information to be studied by the committee, had not learned of any direct connection between the two.

The report, which is known at army headquarters here and which has been forwarded to the War Department, is that the ship bearing the arms and ammunition reached Manzanillo December 24. The Yakuma, manned by 800 officers and men, anchored alongside. A part of the Yakuma's personnel were students from the Japanese Military Academy.

Anticipating the arrival of the warship there appeared at the port a committee representing the Mexican Department of War and Marine which invited the commanding officer and as many of his organization as could go to visit Mexico City.

Troops Improved.

The cargo landed from the Japanese ship is that arranged for by Col. Emilio Cirolos, who was detained for a short time by port authorities at San Francisco, when he returned to this country. His negotiations were facilitated by Manuel Perez Romero, then Mexican minister at Tokio.

To what extent Japanese arms and ammunition have been entering Mexico is unknown. Recent reports from Mexico indicate improvement in the equipment of federal troops, the forces now in the state of Chihuahua being much better supplied with machine guns than for some years.

The various units operating in the north are said to have more ammunition than heretofore, their clothing is better and a marked improvement in morale has been reported.

COUNTY BOARD OF TAX SUPERVISORS APPOINTED

County Judge Mack Cook has designated and appointed the Board of Tax Supervisors for Ohio County, for the present year, one from each magisterial district as follows:

C. I. Maxey, Hartford; Clarence Dennis, Beaver Dam; J. N. Moore, Rockport; Nat Lindley, Centertown; John Davis, Bartlett; Virgil Matthews, Fordville; N. B. White, Sulphur Springs; John L. Miller, Rosine.

The Board will meet and begin its labors on the second Monday in March, and the law requires that it be in session not less than two nor more than twelve days, seven or eight days of which will likely be occupied in equalizing and two or three for hearing complaints.

TRIAL LASTS 8 MONTHS; JURY OUT 15 MINUTES

New York, Jan. 12.—After a trial lasting eight months it took the jury fifteen minutes today to return a verdict of not guilty in the case of fourteen officials and employees of the Coastwise Lumber Company, who were charged with conspiracy to defraud the Government on war contracts.

COUNTY COURT IS TO HAVE ADVISORY BOARD

Ohio County is to have an innovation in the form of an Advisory Board to the County Court, or more properly to the County Judge.

The duties of the Advisory Board will be to practically take charge of all juvenile cases and cases of domestic trouble brought to the County Court for adjustment. Power for final adjustment as a matter of course can not be conferred upon the Board created, but after investigation and proper inquiry the Court will be guided in the main by the opinions and recommendations of the Advisory Board.

The Court has appointed as members of the Board created, Mesdames John B. Wilson, J. H. B. Carson and W. S. Tinsley.

The workings of this plan being new to Ohio County it will be watched with considerable interest, with hope for its successful operation.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Hartford High School basketball team played the Clarkson High School team on the local floor last Saturday night. At the end of the second half the score stood 28 to 28. They played five more minutes to play off the tie. The score at the end of the game was 32 to 29 in favor of Clarkson.

The following pupils have been recently enrolled in the High school: Mercedes Baird, Cliffie Baird, Halie Belle Allen, Claudia Allen, James Bozarth, Geneva Howard Otha Lee, Beatrice Ford, Lockett Ford, Grace Hill, Lena Henry, Martin Schampire, Jack Johnson, Lucile Westerfield, A'ton Cornell, Ray Cook and Sudie Allen.

The third number of the Lyceum Course will be given in the auditorium at the College, Monday night, January 19. This number will be a feast for all lovers of instrumental music and will be rendered by the Hippie Concert Company.

THREE CHILDREN GO TO THE MASONIC HOME

William, who had been with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Duke, of this place, for some months, and Robert and Henry, who had been with relatives near Utica, all children of Capt. William E. Bennett, deceased, and Mrs. Bennett, who is an invalid in the Western Kentucky Asylum, in company with Alvis S. Bennett, their guardian, left Owensboro Monday, for Louisville, where the boys were placed in the Masonic Home.

It was Capt. Bennett's oft expressed desire, that should the unforeseen hand of providence make it necessary that the children be separated in private life, that they be sent instead to the home maintained by the Masonic Fraternity, of which he was an ardent member. So in compliance with that request the three boys whose ages range from six to twelve, were placed in the Home Monday by their guardian, arrangements for their entry having been previously completed.

THE MEETING.

The series of meetings being held at the Methodist Church continue to grow in interest from day to day. Rev. Waters is delivering some of the most powerful and logical sermons ever heard in this community and much good is being accomplished.

Mr. Joe M. Hampton, director in charge of the song service is a leader of rare ability. His solos rendered at each service, accompanied by Miss Hanson, is a feature, alone, calculated to draw large houses.

The meeting will more than likely continue through another week.

JOINT MEETING

Of The Ohio County Fiscal Court
And The Ohio County
Farm Bureau

At the joint meeting, held on Jan. 6th., 1920, in the Court Room at Hartford, the Fiscal Court and the Farm Bureau members and their friends, had the opportunity of hearing Mr. B. G. Nelson, the District Agent for this, and the surrounding counties, speak on the Work of the Farm Bureau and the County Agents.

Mr. Nelson was placed by the Government as District Agent at the start of the war, having been in the Quartermaster's Dept. of the Army at the outbreak of hostilities; and being a farmer himself, his double experience was invaluable to the State in its endeavor to increase agricultural production. Furthermore as Mr. Nelson has made twenty-two Farm Bureau speeches in the last month, and has been in intimate touch with this movement ever since its inception in this State, and as practically every County in his district has a Farm Bureau organized, there is not a better informed man on this subject south of the Ohio river. That his hearers appreciated this fact was evident by the applause that greeted his efforts.

The Bureau was called to order about 11 o'clock by the temporary president, Mr. E. G. Austin, of Beaver Dam, and after the usual business preliminaries, the election of permanent officers for the organization was completed. The result was as follows:

President—C. O. Keown, Hartford.
Vice-President—W. H. Rhoads, Goshen. (Hartford P. O.)

Secy-Treas—Watt Taylor, Centertown.

Credentials were prepared and Mr. Watt Taylor elected to act as the official Bureau representative, to attend the Farm Bureau Federation meeting at Louisville on Feb. 17-18.

A motion was made and passed to the effect that the Fiscal Court be requested to appropriate the necessary sum to meet the sum furnished by the Extension Division of the University of Kentucky and the United States Department of Agriculture, for salary of the County Agent, and that the present Agent be retained for another year.

A resolution was presented and adopted, which follows verbatim: "We the Farmers of Ohio county, in convention assembled, hereby wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to the most excellent Ladies of Hartford and vicinity, for the splendid dinner so bountifully prepared and generously served in keeping with true Kentucky Hospitality.

Coming at this time of scarce sugar, and the high cost of living, it was like a fertile, blooming oasis in a barren desert, and its remembrance shall ever be a green spot in our memory."

A most significant indication of the attitude of the conservative farmers of this county toward this organization was the enrollment of members of the Fiscal Court, representative farmers of influence from practically every district and the fact that the Farm Bureau, while not yet one month old in this county, has to its credit cash and signed pledges to the amount of over $200.00.

The thanks and a good portion of the credit for the success of the Big Dinner is directly due to those merchants and friends whose generosity made possible the purchase of such supplies as were not donated, their co-operation will not be forgotten.

Remember the Farm Bureau slogan, "The cost of Production plus a reasonable Profit," and keep in mind the war cry of the organization.—WATCH US GROW!

SPECK—MCNEAL

News has been received here of the marriage of Mr. Hinton McNeal, of Nashville, Tenn., to Miss Olive May Speck, of Bowling Green. The marriage being solemnized in the former city on January 4th.

The bride is a daughter of Master Commissioner, W. R. Speck, a sister to Roy B. Speck, Clerk of the Court of Appeals and a niece of Mrs. C. M. Crowe, of Hartford. Mrs. McNeal will be well remembered by the younger set here with whom she gained much popularity while visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Crowe, and Judge Crowe.

APART 74 YEARS

Methodist Meet for Union In House
Where Division Began

(Courier-Journal)

In the same church where the breach between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was created in 1846, a committee of eminent Methodists of both churches will meet at 11 o'clock Thursday morning in an endeavor to reunite the two wings.

The meeting will be called in Fourth-avenue Methodist Church and will last for four or five days. Bishop W. F. McDowell, Washington, will head the Northern church representatives and Bishop Edwin Mouzon, Ft. Worth district, will lead the Southern.

According to Louisville Methodist ministers, reunifying of the churches probably will be effected. Should they come to an amicable agreement the question then will be referred to the church conferences for ratification.

Slavery was the indirect cause of the breach.

The wife of Bishop Andrews, Ga., owned a slave girl in 1844. Methodist Episcopal congregations in the North contended that this should cause his removal. Southern branches of the church held that the bishop was appointed by the church conference, and, therefore, could not be removed, since he was appointed for life. The breach was then effected.

Two years later the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was formed at a big conference in the Old Fourth-street Methodist Church, according to the Rev. S. J. Thompson. The church was then located on Fourth Street, just north of Jefferson, where a restaurant now stands.

Sentiment, according to the Rev. Leonidas Robinson, pastor of the Fourth Avenue Church, caused the meeting to be called here.

Three months ago a meeting of a sub-committee was held at Richmond, Va., when a tentative agreement was reached.

The meeting will be an executive session and only members of the religious press will be admitted. Nearly 100 editors of religious papers will attend, and a meeting of the editors will be held in the Fourth Avenue Methodist Church, Thursday night.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has a membership of 4,000,000 according to the Rev. Mr. Thompson, and the Southern Church has a membership of 2,000,000.

ADVERTISING INCREASED.

Due to circumstances over which we have no control, we have been forced to increase our rates for all kinds of advertising:

For Obituaries, cards of thanks, resolutions of all kinds and articles not wholly of a general news nature, one cent per word, with an additional 6 cents per line for each head line used, or signature to the article.

Business locals will be charged for at the rate of 10 cents per line for the first appearance and 8 cents per line for each additional insertion.

Display advertising rates have also been increased. Describe copy, giving amount of space desired together with number of times you desire it run and write or call us for rates, or get our rates and keep them handy for reference.

It shall be our earnest aim and desire to give to our patrons value received for all business entrusted to us, whether it be in advertising space or work from our job department.

It is our aim to comply with your wishes promptly, but we beg that you give us your orders at the earliest date possible, so that we may be allowed a reasonable length of time in which to give you good service. It happens that we are at times crowded, and of course it's like going to mill "first in, first out."

FARMERS' WEEK.

The Farm and Home Convention (Farmers' Week) is to be held January 27th to 30th, at the Experiment Station and College of Agriculture. This is an annual event and consists of a series of meetings, lectures and exhibits, competitive and otherwise. I have heard that several men from this county have attended at one time or another, and one man has already told me he would go this year. Now there is plenty of room for all to go, and plenty to see and hear after you get there to well repay you for the time and money you will spend on such a trip.

As your County Agent I am expected to keep in touch with all such movements, but this work is primarily for Farmers, not for Agents. Come on and go. I will guarantee to see that you have the opportunity to fully see the Station and the Experiment Farm, have it all explained to you, and that you will have a good time also.

This is an open invitation to see what is being done with the tax money you are paying; to see what is being done to better farming conditions and methods; to see and know how the young men and women from your Home County, town or community are educated by Your State.

The period from January 31st to February 4th, inclusive, will be devoted to the annual County Agents meeting, at which the Extension work of the State is reviewed, new plans made etc. All Agents are required to be present at this time, so this Office will be closed from January 26th until February 6th; and you are respectfully referred to Mr. Watt Taylor, Secretary of the Farm Bureau at Centertown, who will be glad to take care of any inquiries you may have in my absence.

M. L. McCRACKEN, C. A.

NEW DRAINAGE COMMISSIONER.

The County Court at its regular January term appointed L. C. Leach, of Beaver Dam, as a member of the Ohio County Board of Drainage Commissioners, to fill out the unexpired term of W. M. Baldwin, who has removed from the State. The Board is now composed of James H. Thomas, of Beaver Dam, J. A. Bellamy, of Deanfield, and the new appointee, Mr. Leach, with McDowell A. Fogle, Secretary.

BLACK—IGLEHEART

Mr. Clarence B. Iglehart and Miss Norine Elizabeth Black were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents on Clay Street, Rev. E. Watt Smith, pastor of the M. E. Church, S., officiating.

The young married couple left immediately for French Lick Springs, Ind., and other points, to be gone about ten days.

The bride is a daughter of Ex-Sheriff and Mrs. Thomas H. Black, a young lady of culture and refinement and a most lovable disposition, highly esteemed by all who know her while Mr. Iglehart is a son of Mrs. Helen Iglehart, residing one and one-half miles north of this place. Pete, as most people know him, is a splendid type of young manhood and is like-wise popular with all of his friends, who are numbered by all who intimately know him.

The writer sincerely wishes that the journey so pleasantly and joyfully embarked upon by these young people may be strewn with life's best, even to the end.

LITTLE CHILD DIES

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Early Harris died Sunday night at the home of Mrs. H. Wadelle of near here, of pneumonia. Burial of the remains took place Sunday afternoon at Oakwood.

Mrs. Harris was visiting her mother, when the little child was attacked by a violent case of pneumonia.

WILLIAM BARNARD DIES FROM MINE ACCIDENT

Mr. William Barnard, while working in the Rockport Coal Mines last Friday, suffered fatal injuries from falling slate from which he died Saturday morning. The remains were buried at Ceralvo, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Barnard is survived by his widow and three children, the youngest of whom is only two weeks old.

Mr. Will Himes and family will leave here to-day for Akron, Ohio, where they go to reside for a time. Mr. Himes and the two boys expecting to secure work in the City of Rubber.

Mrs. Carrie A. Williams, who has been residing in Austin, Texas, since last July, has removed to Shreveport, La. Mrs. Williams formerly resided here, where she has many friends.

BROOM FACTORY HERE

Mr. Noble Baird has installed a broom factory in what is known as the C. J. Rhoads old building, on Main Street. This should prove to be quite beneficial to the surrounding community, as farmers may produce corn sufficient for home needs, or for sale and obtain a ready market for same at all times in the year.

There is no reason for the shipment of brooms into this community from the Louisville, St. Louis and other markets, as has been the custom for years, when the corn may be produced and brooms manufactured at home, thus saving considerable in freight and profits of both Broker and wholesale merchant.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IN LOUISVILLE MARCH 3

The Republican State Convention for the selection of delegates and Alternates to the National Convention which meets in Chicago, June the 8, has been called to meet in Louisville, March 3, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

County Mass Conventions will be held Saturday, March 1st., at 1 o'clock p. m., at the County Seats of the various Counties. The basis of representation was fixed at one delegate for each 100 or fraction over 50 votes cast for Charles E. Hughes for President in 1916. Under this arrangement Ohio County will be entitled to 33 delegates to the State Convention.

The State Central Committee also provided in its meeting of Wednesday, that new members of the County Executive Committees be elected on the third Saturday in March, elections to be held in the various precincts of each county, except the County Committees may provide that the new Committeeman may be elected by County Mass Convention, in which event the officers holding the convention for election of delegates to the State Convention shall conduct that for the election of Committee-men.

BYRAN AND WILSON IN SPLIT ON TREATY

President Wants To Go To People—Peerless One
Says No

Washington, Jan. 9.—President Wilson's decision that the League of Nations issue should be placed before the voters as a "solemn referendum" and William J. Bryan's contention that the Democratic party cannot go before the country on the question, but should accept such compromises "as may be possible" are the twin surges of the conclave of party chieftains which found its climax in the annual Jackson Day dinner.

The President's message to the party, written from the sickroom in the White House and read to the diners, made no mention of a third term for himself and no announcement of any impending retirement to private life, as many had predicted it would.

Mr. Bryan's speech, taking definite issue with the President's decision on the great question, was accompanied by a statement that he was not speaking as a candidate for the presidential nomination. Many of the Democratic leaders freely said that portion was a distinct surprise to them.

Today the rank and file of the Democratic party, as well as the leaders throughout the country, are studying the opposite announcements of the two national leaders and are attempting to assess their effect on the party's fortunes at the nominating convention which will be held in San Francisco, June 28 and at the polls next November.

Many political observers feel that it is yet too early to accurately estimate the position in which the cleavage between the President and the foremost Democrat in private life leaves the party. They feel that the situation must settle down a little, that stock must be taken and that the opinions of the rank and file must be ascertained.

Sentiment Seems Divided.
Whether the position of the two men, now definitely announced, means a fight in the National Convention reminiscent of the spectacular battle in Baltimore in 1912 when Mr. Bryan forced the President's nomination and reversed the traditional practice of the party conventions in giving a nomination to a candidate who commanded a majority, no party leader is willing to predict for publication.

Sentiment among the Democratic leaders at the Jackson dinner as expressed in their speeches seemed to be divided between support of the President's decision and Mr. Bryan's position, while some of the men who were in the list of nominating possibilities did not touch on the subject at all.

It seems agreed that Mr. Bryan's argument that the treaty should be ratified with such compromises as may be possible will give a tremendous impetus to the movement which steadily has been going on in the unpopularity of the Senate for a getting of the treaty without reservations, and that the so-called irreconcilables of the treaty will find a common ground and join with the mild reservationists in putting through the covenant.

President Wilson's reiteration that there can be no responsible objection to interpretations to "say what the intention of the League is," it is thought by some of those on both sides of the contest, may speed the movement.

Bridge Accepts Challenge

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, and foremost in the fight against ratification of the treaty without reservations which it is contended will "Americanize" it, takes a wholly opposite view and has issued a formal statement declaring that the President's message makes impossible the hope that the Senate will compose its differences of opinion and ratify the treaty "protected by the principles set forth in the fourteen reservations."

A appeal to the people at the polls, the Republican Senate leader declared in his statement, would to him be "most cordially welcome."

The liver loses its activity at times and needs help. Herbine is an effective liver stimulant. It also purifies the bowels, strengthens digestion and restores strength, vigor and cheerful spirits. Price 60c. Sold by Ohio County Drug Co.

Mr. Lonnie Wade has made arrangements to live on the Fuqua farm this year.

Mr. James Hicks has rented Miss Lizzie Hoagland's farm for this year.

The Best Cough Medicine.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

J. B. Jones, a well known druggist of Cubrun, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

GIRLS ARE BRANDED.

Yet a further evidence of Turkish brutality is afforded by Dr. Wilfred M. Post of Princeton University, recently returned from Constantinople. Armenian girls and women who fell into the hands of the Turks were indelibly branded upon the face as a sign of the acquired Mohammedanism. Now with their release through allied intervention comes the serious inquiry as to how such marks may be removed without disfigurement. Dr. Post appeals to the scientific world for suggestions.

KANE DECLARES HE IS POWERLESS TO CHECK GOUGERS

Handicapped by Cooke's Refusal to Reorganize Wartime Fair-Price Board, He Says

ATTORNEY'S DUTY TO STOP
PROFITEERING, SAYS HEINZ

Prosecutor Has No Time to Answer Questions Concerning Action in Other Cities

With the housewives of this city clamoring for direct, vigorous action against the food gougers, whom they hold responsible for the undernourishment of their children, Francis E. Kane, United States district attorney, declared yesterday he was powerless to check profiteering.

Mr. Kane complained he was handicapped by the refusal of Jay Cooke, formerly food administrator for Philadelphia, to reorganize the fair-price board. That board, of public utility, ought to be reformed, he said.

But Howard Heinz, attorney for Pennsylvania, told Mr. Kane on that point that he was making every effort to have fair-price boards re-established, that would not relieve the federal authorities from their duty to stop profiteering.

The district attorney said that the Lever food-control act proved to be effective in cases of profiteering as distinct from profiteering, reiterated that it would be extremely difficult to prove violations.

Mr. Kane acknowledges that prices are inordinately high. Ignoring the price of meats, regarding which Robert M. Simmons, agent of the State Food and Dairy Department and government food and drug inspector, has given him a mass of evidence, he said, that "the prices of green vegetables are terrible."

Mr. Kane said that he had been told that a government official was going to take a trip to the war zone to get a better idea of the cost of living. He said that when he got back he would find out what the cost of living was.

Great Quantities of Food Seized by Federal Agents in Big Cities

INDICATIONS of the real punch behind the high cost of living were given in many cities.

While Attorney General Palmer's committee that he intended to prosecute higher prices than those listed by word came from Chicago, St. Louis, quantities of foodstuffs by federal agents in Chicago 1232 tubs of beef, 284,180 pounds of coffee, wheat and in Birmingham 100 barrels.

TREATY OUTLOOK IS LESS GLOOMY

Hope For Compromise As Democrats Shown New Attitude

By James R. Nourse.

Washington, Jan. 10.—Numerous conferences between the opposing sides in the treaty fight in the Senate today strengthened the hopes of those who believe that by a compromise of reservations ratification of the treaty will be possible.

Administration senators showed a disposition to make greater concessions to the Republican leaders than they have manifested at any time since the fight began.

The fact that they might be brought to an acceptance of the Lodge reservations with slight modifications, which would mean that the President would refuse to accept the ratification, did not deter the Democratic senators from offering to go a long way in the direction of compromise.

Senator Curtis, Republican whip, declared that in his opinion the Democrats will yield to the essential provisions of the Lodge reservations and that the treaty will be ratified next week.

Lodge To Yield Slightly.

Senators Lenroot, Colt and others of the "mild reservation" group among the Republicans were equally confident.

Senator Lodge, in his conference with Democrats and Republicans alike, refused to make any concession on the reservation on Article X, but it is understood he will not oppose a slight modification of the preamble and a redrafting of the Lenroot reservation on the equality of voting.

Further than this, it is understood Senator Lodge will not go, and his advice to the Democrats is that they will have to accept the reservations with these modifications, or again witness the failure of the resolution of ratification.

Conferences were the order of the day in the Senate. They began as soon as the Senate session opened and were continued long after the hour of adjournment. Senator Lodge discussed the treaty with Senators Lenroot, McNary and Underwood, and there were conferences also in which Senators Swanson, Hitchcock, Moses, Frelinghuysen and Colt participated.

"Mild" Group Sends Scouts.

The "mild reservationists" sent Senators Colt, McNary and Lenroot to talk things over with Senator Lodge, and afterward they conferred with Senators McKellar and Kendrick Democrats, who prepared the reservations which are said to have been sponsored by Mr. Bryan. In the latter conference Senator Colt inquired of Senators McKellar and Kendrick how many Democratic votes they would be able to deliver for the reservations in the event the "mild reservationists" adopted them. They were advised to make a canvass of the Democratic membership and ascertain just how many would support the Bryan idea.

Senators McKellar and Kendrick explained they thought it would be possible to get enough votes among the Democrats to put the reservations through. They told the Republicans that the sentiment in favor of reservations among the Democrats was growing and that there would be a considerable number of Democrats who would vote for strong reservations even though they might be too strong to suit the President.

MUTINY ON TRANSPORT.

The transport America returning from France with members of the American peace mission aboard, brought in seven members of its crew in irons. They were charged with mutiny, as the crew, led by what are believed to be professional agitators, had been rebellious since beginning its voyage.

The Successful Farmer Raises Bigger Crops

and cuts down costs by investment in labor-saving machinery.

Good prices for the farmers' crops encourage new investment, more production and greater prosperity.

But the success of agriculture depends on the growth of railroads—the modern beasts of burden that haul the crops to the world's markets.

The railroads—like the farms—increase their output and cut down unit costs by the constant investment of new capital.

With fair prices for the work they do, the railroads are able to attract new capital for expanding their facilities.

Rates high enough to yield a fair return will insure railroad growth, and prevent costly traffic congestion, which invariably results in poorer service at higher cost.

National wealth can increase only as our railroads grow.

Poor railroad service is dear at any price. No growing country can long pay the price of inadequate transportation facilities.

Monessen, Pa., Jan. 10.—A local newspaper has received a unique response from one of its subscribers to whom a bill was sent recently. The subscriber, who signs his name "I.O. Everyone," says:

"Dear Editor: Your bill for the last subscription received and I, for the following reasons, am unable to send you a check just now. I have been held up, held down, sandbagged, walked on, flattened out and squeezed, first by the United States government for federal war tax, the excess profit tax, the Liberty Loan bonds, the capital stock tax, auto tax, merchants' license, brokers' license and by every society and organization that inventive mind can invent to extract, what I may or may not possess.

"The government has so governed my business that I do not know who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, examined, re-examined, required and commanded so I do not know who I am or why I am here.

ARIZONA BIG COTTON STATE.

The year 1919 saw 92,000 acres planted to long staple cotton in Arizona. Although one-half bale to the acre is an estimated average, one bale or even more is not uncommon. It further develops upon investigation that cotton, like the mesquite and the gila monster, is indigenous to the state.

SALARIES SET BY LAW MUST STAND

Attorney General Decides Department Can't Give Increases.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 10.—Responding to an inquiry from H. E. James, state inspector and examiner, Attorney General Dawson held that the heads of the various departments of the state have no authority to change salaries of assistants fixed by statute. The question arose in construing certain sections of the Budget Appropriation Commission statute.

Attorney General Dawson held that no department has the right to employ any help or to expend any money other than that set forth and asked for in the estimate submitted to the commission. The amount requested by each department should be classified according to its purpose, Attorney General Dawson said, such as salaries, maintenance, operation, supplies, repairs and permanent improvements. If the purpose of any department is to use more money than was appropriated in the preceding year the reason for the increased appropriations should be set out in detail, he held.

The effect of this opinion will be that the heads of the departments must hew strictly to the line of economy during this administration.

Members of the General Assembly are entitled to receive compensation for Sunday and holidays occurring during the legislative session. Attorney General Dawson so decided today in an opinion addressed to Lilburn Phelps, chief clerk of the House of Representatives.

The constitution provides that the members are to receive their compensation during their attendance on the sessions and the attorney general holds that the word session includes whatever Sundays and holidays that may occur during the period.

"Of course," said Mr. Dawson, "the session can't continue over sixty legislative days exclusive of Sundays and holidays. Unless this meaning is given to the word session, and if it be held that the word session refers to each day that the General Assembly is meeting, it would follow that if each member could travel to his home and back between each day's meeting of the General Assembly that he could collect his mileage for each trip."

Any member of the General Assembly, however, who fails to attend without a good excuse, is not entitled to his per diem and his pay should be reduced accordingly, in the opinion of the attorney general.

FRIDAY..... JANUARY 16

It seems that Milwaukee has resolved to maintain her reputation for fame, even though it be via the Berger route.

Saturday witnessed the finishing touches to the ratification of peace between Germany and all the Allied Powers, with the exception of the U. S. A., and if we wait no longer on that than we did to enter the war, peace with Germany will be accomplished within about three years.

Victor Berger's raps upon the shield of the outer door of the Halls of Congress the second time for admission took him no further than the ante-rooms. When the ballot was spread on his acceptance, it showed that all of the balls were white but about three or four hundred. In fact only six white cubes were found in his favor.

To read the editorial in our esteemed contemporary on the question of Victor Berger's second ousting from Congress one would think there was but one vote for him and that one a Republican. When in fact there were six, three democrats and three Republicans. Mann, a Republican, gave his reasons—none of which do we agree with—but not one of the Democrats proved man enough. Whose children will they be after this?

"All the world is at peace with Germany except the United States. Suppose each of the other allied countries had possessed a Lodge. Wouldn't this old world have been in a fix?"—Hartford Herald. And what would have happened if all nations had possessed a Woodrow Wilson, and each of those nations should have sent that Woodrow Wilson to make peace? We doubt if they would have agreed before the second coming of the Savior.

The Highest Court in the land having upheld the Volstead, war-time prohibition act, the manufacture and sale of any sort of concoction containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol, is therefore illegal. Thus that chapter is ended. About all we have to do now is to sit steady in the boat and watch for the flow of briny tears from the eyes of the lean growing brewers when the Court of last resort gets through with the constitutionality of the Nation-wide prohibition act.

The Ministerial Association of Louisville, is making a strenuous fight to have the Theaters and places of amusement closed on Sundays, under what is commonly termed the "Old Blue Law." For the enforcement of the act there is right good argument, both pro and con. The City Officials say that the law must not be half enforced, but the whole route must be traveled, which would close out the publication of all Sunday and Monday morning newspapers as now issued and hundreds of other places now allowed to operate. For thousands of people living the city life, that portion depending upon their personal and daily efforts for the living of themselves and families, there is no time for recreation and relaxation, except it be upon the Sabbath. It is questionable whether the enforcement of the law would benefit the churches or not. We do not know whether the ministers desire the law enforced with the idea that more people would be brought to attend religious worship, or purely for the satisfaction of upholding the law's enforcement, the violation of which carries with it no apparent disorder or abrogation of the rights of others. We would not attempt to say that the Ministers are wrong. Moral ly speaking it is generally safest to follow the lead of those who are true shepherds of the flocks of God. But in this particular line of warfare we think we see a rather long and hard fought battle, the winning of which might be a victory "without peace."

Geo. Delker Buggies

We have a car load of the original Geo. Delker Buggies, all new models and they are some beauties, too. You, that want a new buggy, cannot go wrong by getting one of these

Reliable Delker Buggies

When you own one of these buggies you have a gear that is made of well-seasoned, selected hickory, strongly ironed and braced, and in the body you get a poplar panel---not a gum panel body, like a number of buggy factories are selling you now. We all know that there is no wood that will take oil and paint and hold a finish like poplar. This is why we say you cannot go wrong in buying a George Delker Buggy.

HARTFORD, - KENTUCKY

BEADS ODDLY STRUNG

(By I. D. Claire.)

The tide of time plays some strange parts in the varying fortunes of men. More than twenty years ago Al Anderson and myself were pleasantly associated together as editor and compositor of the Hartford Republican and now, after a lapse of a score of years, we have resumed a similar relation on the Owensboro Messenger.

After reading that prison editorial in the Republican last week I called up Governor Morrow and warned him, at the peril of my support for vice-president, not to appoint the editor of the Republican warden of the penitentiary. I told him that with so many warehouses around the Yaller Banks I was liable to break in—I mean the penitentiary—well, yes, too, the warehouse—and that I was unwilling to have such a strict official reign over me. I told the Gov. that after reading that editorial, and thinking of the editor as a possible warden, I saw visions of dungeons, spiked chairs, straight jackets, cat o' nintails and various and sundry other instruments of torture, and for goodness sake not to make Tins warden.

Governor Morrow's stand for a non-partisan judiciary is meeting with universal approval, and it is almost certain the present session of the general assembly will make it legally possible for candidates for judicial offices to run upon their merits rather than as candidates of a political party. If this occurs the re-election of Judge Slack and Commonwealth's Attorney Smith will, if they are candidates, almost certainly occur. The records of these officials in this the most important court of the district, are justly appreciated. I feel no small measure of personal pride to observe with what respect and esteem my former neighbor and fellow-townsmen, Claude Smith, is regarded in Owensboro where the most important prosecutions of the district occur. He is given just credit for ridding the city of the houses of prostitution and of reducing the gambling evil to the vanishing point, when other agencies including other circuit courts had failed to protect the city against these evils.

Gee! But Fluke waxed elegant in describing that trip of the old "Angler" o'rowd to the mountains next spring. I have seen most of the Kentucky mountains that are sealed from car windows, and his magnificent description of those never-to-be-forgotten scenes, kindled my smouldering embers of memory to a sweeping, roaring conflagration. I saw again, in fancy, the great white mountains rise in sheer massiveness until their pine-capped peaks were lost in the everlasting blue. The frowning faces of the high-reaching cliffs, carved by sun and wind and frost and rain, daring, yet inviting man's approach, overwhelmed me with their enchanting grandeur. High up among those mountain crags I heard the deafening scream of the maddened eagle as it winged its anxious way to the attack of the stealthy serpent approaching the nest of its helpless young. I saw above those towering hills the evening storm cloud tear along, and heard the deafening thunder roll from peak to peak, while the sheeted lightning flung its blazing folds about the scene. But in a moment of calmer memory I heard the whispered rhythm of a thousand tiny streamlets as they trickled from the mountain's side, and from a quiet cove, removed from the beaten paths of men, I saw wreaths of smoke curling lazily upward toward the mountain sky. Ah! here was hope that at last, was found the glad oasis, where Fluke so seductively said, "The spirit of corn was forever stilled." Yes, yes, dear Fluke, when the old gang roll is called for the mountain trip, I'll be there.

Come in and get your share of meat quick, if you don't it will all be gone.
A. J. WILLIAMS.

STRAY STREAKS

(By Fluke McFluke.)

Missus Blackhead says she knows she has the awfulest time of any frail woman in this whole community, that it keeps her everlastingly patching trying to mend Ernest's ways.

As hereinbefore stated, everything in this column is original, new and true, unless otherwise. This announcement is made every four years for the benefit of new subscribers and children.

We like the sermons being delivered up at the Methodist Church, the singing and music is A-one. But if a bow-legged usher must stand in front of us during the services, may he be more so.

When Ladies attend a show they remove their hats, when they go to church the bigger the better, and always unremoved we notice. If there is one thing that we like better than another it is to be tickled under the nose or chin with an ostrich plume or a goose quill twice in stead of once.

We have offered the Devil time and a half to two times for the hour put in at church of mornings, if he would only go, but he won't. Says he would simply get behind with his work here and would have to be on the double quick for one and a half or two hours to catch up, and that don't suit him a bit, as he will hit the far end of the chase all too quick without rushing the trail now.

It looks a bit like I. D. Claire had been thinking of doing something for which he might get into prison, but from the tone of dread as expressed in his beads this week, think he has changed his mind. And so, some good has been done maybe, some crime uncommitted through fear of the consequence to follow. Thus you see the deterring influence of real punishment, that sort, as I said reserved for the "Crooked Crook and Criminally Criminal."

Albert Rial says on account of the alleged high cost of lather Fred Robertson and the barbers at his shop have raised the price of shaves to 20 cents. The Kaiser says they could have gotten around that difficulty by simply using the same lather for the third shave, instead of using it twice as they have been doing. Rial has petitioned Hoover to make an investigation of this wanton waste of lather and apparent profiteering.

Henry Carson, John Wilson and I have been holding some secret meetings, by which we have formed a tripple alliance since our wives have been appointed on that advisory board to inquire into, and aid in the adjustment and settlement of domestic relations of people in Ohio County. We have already employed as a lawyer, in fact Arthur Kirk volunteered his services gratis, with the understanding that we were to work under a sort of reciprocity agreement. We have worked out plans by which we can appeal to Circuit Court and get from under the jurisdiction of this Board created by Judge Cook.

DON'T YOU KNOW?

That every man in Ohio county, is liable for a fine not exceeding $100 and three months imprisonment in the County jail, for failure to procure a license and tag for his dog, by the first day of January, 1920, and you have no excuse as the licenses and tags have been in the hands of the County Clerk for at least three months, so if you have not already procured license and tag for your dog, you had better get busy and get one. To get a license and tag by mail, give the following information and send postage:

Your Post Office address.
Your Precinct.
Breed of dog.
Male or Female.
Color.
Markings.
Age of dog.
For a male dog send $1.02 for the first male, and $2.00 for each subsequent male dog.
For a female dog send $2.02 for the first female and $4.00 for each subsequent female dog.
No one wants you to pay a fine, but you must get your license and tag at once, as you are already liable for the penalty.

PRINCE ALBERT

Copyright 1919 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

YOU certainly get yours when you lay your smokecards on the table, call for a tidy red tin or a toppy red bag of Prince Albert and roll a makin' cigarette! You'll want to hire a statistical bureau to keep count of your smokestunts! Why, you never dreamed of the sport that lies awaiting your call in a home rolled cigarette when it's P. A. for the packing!

Talk about flavor! Man, man, you haven't got the listen of half your smokecareer until you know what rolling 'em with P. A. can do for your contentment! And, back of P. A.'s flavor, and rare fragrance—proofs of Prince Albert's quality—stands our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch! With P. A. your smokesong in a makin' cigarette will outlast any phonograph record you ever heard! Prince Albert is a cinch to roll. It's crimp cut and stays put like a regular call!

Prince Albert upsets any notion you ever had as to how delightful a jimmy pipe can be! It is the tobacco that has made three men smoke pipes where one was smoked before. It has won men all over the nation to the joys of smoking.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Awaiting your say-so, you'll find toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and that classy, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps Prince Albert in such perfect condition!

We wish them much prosperity and happiness.

Mr. Henry Midkiff has moved onto the farm recently vacated by J. A. Ballard and will raise a crop there this year.

Mr. Wayne Dever has moved to Hartford to make his fortune in the grocery business. There are too many good farmers going off the farm to towns, for the good of the Country. Producers turning to consumers is a very poor way to reduce the high cost of living.

Mr. Tom Taylor, who moved to Daviess County last spring has purchased a farm of Mr. J. F. Magan and moved back to this county. You can't keep an Ohio county man in Daviess, and yet I heard a member of the Fiscal court say the other day that Ohio was a very poor County.

Pale, Anemic Girls Need Blood Tonic

Pepto-Mangan Enriches and Builds Up The Blood

Pallor, Headaches and Shortness Of Breath Disappear

Pepto-Mangan Sold in Liquid and Tablet Form

Why should any girl or young woman continue to have a pale, sallow complexion and a listless, run-down system devoid of energy and vitality?

Such young folks are continually unhappy and dejected simply because they accept such a condition as their misfortune, and envy their friends who are in the bloom of health and enjoying all the good things of life.

If such young women would realize that their anemic condition is probably due to thin, impoverished blood, which could easily be enriched by Gude's Pepto-Mangan, how much happier and attractive they would be.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a safe, beneficial and pleasant tonic for anyone suffering from any ailment caused by poor blood. If taken regularly for a few weeks it will enrich the blood with thousands of the healthy, red-blood cells that are needed to carry nourishment to every part of the body.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in both liquid and tablet form. Both contain the same medicinal ingredients.

Buy Pepto-Mangan at your druggist's. Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan.—(Adv.)

EGG-A-DAY HEN TONIC

Have you gotten your package of Egg-A-Day Hen Tonic at the store nearest your home?

Be sure your hens have a warm nest of straw, good food mixed with Egg-A-Day Hen Tonic and clean water. Give your hens a chance and with eggs at seventy-five cents a dozen they will pay big dividends.

BEAUTY SECRETS!

Whereshe gets her good looks, her healthy skin, her pink cheeks, is known to every one.

because it is apparent that it is not due to cosmetics, paint and powder. But the true womanly beauty comes from good health, and this good health is a woman's secret.

Health comes with good physical machinery and good spirits, an active digestion. A body free from pains and aches comes with a tonic known for over fifty years as the best "temperance" tonic and nerve for woman—namely, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It can be obtained in any drug store in liquid or tablet form, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Cleansing of the intestinal tract is important. Take castor oil or select a vegetable pill. Such a one is composed of May-apple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap, and made into tiny sugar-coated pellets, to be had at every drug store as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

Moving is the order of the day in this section. Alex Harrison has moved into the house recently bought of John D. Johnston and Mr. Johnston has moved on a farm recently purchased, near Cedar Grove.

The farm known as the "Young Will Acton place" has been sold again, to a Mr. Rogers, of Daviess county, who is moving to same.

Joy St. Clair, of Dundee, has been to New Mexico, where he has purchased a 72 acre ranch, and has returned for his family. They will start in a few days for their western home.

G. O. P. WOMEN DEMAND EQUAL REPRESENTATION

Urge National Convention To Double Membership Of Committee

Chicago, Jan.—Republicans from fourteen Middle Western States met in Chicago, January 5 and 6 and completed their work of molding party issues and laying plans for the participation of Republican women in the 1920 presidential campaign.

Demands of Republican women for equal representation on the National Committee of the party and a sentiment, reflected in speeches of prominent party leaders, to deal vigorously with the labor and industrial situation as one of the chief issues of the election campaign were the principal developments of the conference which began on the 5th.

Many of the women regarded their demands for a "fair representation" in the party organization as virtually confirmed with the statement of Will H. Hays, chairman of the National Committee, that "the Republican party offers the women everything offered the men."

Plans for the National Convention next June also were launched and arrangements for the fitting up of the Coliseum, with alterations allowing a seating capacity of 13,187, were made.

Edward P. Thayer, of Indianapolis was elected sergeant-at-arms for the gathering.

Resolutions adopted by the Republican women urged the National Convention to take action to double membership of the National Committee, giving each State representation by one man and one woman. The resolution urged also that the policy be extended to all party committees, both State and local.

"Direct citizenship for women, not citizenship through marriage," and laws making possible the naturalization of married women was one of ten planks recommended for the Republican platform.

Abolition of child labor, compulsory education for children, laws governing the employment of women, including the eight-hour day and providing equal opportunity for women in civil service and trade and technical education were other planks endorsed by the women.

At a banquet last night given by the State Central Committee in honor of Chairman Hays and Mrs. John Glover South, chairman of the Women's Division of the National Committee, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood and Gov. F. O. Lowden, candidates for the presidential nomination, and Chairman Hays devoted their attention to the industrial problem. The gathering was attended by more than 1,200 Republican men and women.

No Great Act of Heroism Required

If some great act of heroism were necessary to protect a child from croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears, there are many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within the reach of all and is prompt and effectual. m

BOLSHEVIKS GAIN SIBERIAN VICTORY

London, Jan. 9.—The town of Krasnoyarsk, Eastern Siberia, has been captured by the Bolsheviks, according to a Moscow wireless dispatch.

"The remnants of the first, second and third enemy armies have surrendered and 60,000 prisoners already have been counted," says the dispatch.

Krasnoyarsk is situated on the Trans-Siberian Railway, about 300 miles east of Tomsk. Lying on the plain, and open to the play of the bitter winds, traffic with the town by caravans is almost impossible in the winter. The town is situated on the left bank of the Yenisei River.

Heartburn, indigestion or distress of the stomach is instantly relieved by Herbine. It forces the badly digested food out of the body and restores tone in the stomach and bowels. Price 60c. Sold by Ohio County Drug Company. m

MORROW BACKS BILL FOR HIGHWAY SYSTEM

Manner Of Financing How- ever Has Not Been Worked Out

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 9.—Governor Morrow will get behind the proposed bill, creating a State system of highways under direct control of the State Highway Department, which will make the surveys, let contracts and supervise and accept road work.

State Road Commissioner Joe S. Boggs, Ed P. Axton and Ben Weille, Paducah, and Robert J. McBryde, Eugene Stuart and Albert Terstegge, Louisville, conferred with Governor Morrow today about road legislation, including this measure, and a companion bill to finance the project.

The Governor indorsed the plan embraced in the State Highways Bill, but did not commit himself to any policy of financing it.

It is known that the Governor, in a general way, has expressed himself against permanent improvements out of current revenues, and it is regarded as probable that the Administration will advocate a bond issue.

Road finances, however, it is understood, will have to be considered in connection with the entire financial budget, which includes school funds, an amount necessary to keep up the standard of the University of Kentucky and Normal Schools and needed improvements at the Institute for Feeble-minded Children and the State Hospitals for the Insane.

EYELESS FISH IN CATCH

Fishermen of Sandusky Bay, Ohio, are showing a number of eyeless fish as the latest thing in freaks. If, as seems probable, these fish have escaped from neighboring abandoned mines through subterranean outlets, the Darwinian principle underlying the use and disuse of organs seems again to be demonstrated, as in the case of the blind fish of Mammoth cave in Kentucky.

Don't You Forget It.

Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Tablets not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They contain no poison or other digestive ferment but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. m

THE NORTHERN STATES HAVE ADOPTED THE 56" AUTO-TRACK WAGON

Over 100,000 Standardized Auto-track Wagons Have Been Sold

This Alone Tells the Story of the Future

DURING the war our Government asked the wagon manufacturers of the United States to conserve wagon-building material and labor from the forest to the finished product by doing away with all unnecessary styles and sizes of wagons. So the leading manufacturers got together and decided that the best way to do this would be to make a standardized wagon. The 56-inch auto-track wagon of today is the result.

This wagon was found to be so much better than any of the odd-track wagons, like the old 60-inch wagon, that now the principal manufacturers are making nothing but this type. It lasts longer, pulls easier, and rides better than the wide-track wagon because all four wheels follow the automobile rut while only two wheels of the wide-track travel in the now universal 56-inch ruts that we find wherever there are automobiles—which is everywhere.

Today there have been sold between 100,000 and 150,000 standardized auto-track wagons, such as the Weber, in the United States—and the number is increasing every day. Some manufacturers and dealers who were overstocked with wide-track wagons and material are still selling the now out-of-date wide-track wagons, but there are not many farmers buying them because the farmer of today is just as up-to-date as anyone and is too smart to let a dealer sell him out-of-date goods, and for which repairs may be very difficult to get in just a few years.

That's why we sell the Weber Standardized Auto-Track Wagon. We know it's the wagon that every progressive farmer in this community will want. The Weber has a number of patented and exclusive features that will interest you. Let us show them to you.

Unusual Value—In Tires for Small Cars

Not only is characteristic Goodyear merit conspicuous in Goodyear Tires for small cars but ordinarily the first cost is found to be not greater than that of other tires; often it is actually less.

The combination of unusual value in first cost and very low final cost, of course, is a result of Goodyear experience, expertness and care employed as insistently in the making of 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch tires as it is in the construction of the famous Goodyear Cord Tires used on the highest-priced automobiles.

For this reason more cars using these small sizes were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

Get this unusual tire value to enjoy on your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other small car, at the nearest Goodyear Service Station. Get these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at this station.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure

HOW MUCH DO YOU SHOW YOUR AGE?

A new form of Natural Iron enriches the blood—smooths out wrinkles—strengthens the nerves—wards off old age.

When you begin to show and feel your age, it is because your blood is thin and weak—it no longer carries life and strength to different parts of the body.

The man or woman with warm, rich red blood retains the appearance and feelings of youth, in spite of the creeping years. To ward off the feebleness and appearance of old age is simply a matter of keeping the blood pure and rich and filled with life and vigor.

Iron is the greatest and surest blood maker, but heretofore the difficulty has been to procure it in a form which the human system would absorb in sufficient quantities to bring satisfactory results. Pills and tonics said to contain iron have usually brought only disappointment.

But now there need be no longer any doubt or question, for a successful and reliable method of getting iron into the blood is assured by the use of a natural form of soluble iron known as Acid Iron Mineral. There are thousands of cases on record that prove this natural iron is a powerful blood and nerve builder.

For want of iron in the blood, you may be old at thirty, or you are more readily subject to the attack of disease without warning, or you will find yourself growing feebler day by day.

If you want to feel the elasticity of youth in your veins, and avoid all the complications and disappointments of increasing age, you will start taking Acid Iron Mineral at once. It contains no alcohol or injurious drugs, and it will not blacken the teeth like most preparations of iron.

Druggists will refund the purchase price cheerfully, if you fail to receive the improvement you seek.

OUR LOOM-END SALE!

Begins Saturday, January 17th
CLOSES SATURDAY, JANUARY 31.

This sale is going to be one of the biggest money saving sales we have had. Our merchandise at to-day's regular prices is 25 to 33 1-3 per cent below to-day's market price. You can buy merchandise at our regular prices for future use and make handsome returns on your investment.

Merchandise is high and still on the upward trend at a rapid rate. You may be wondering when merchandise will begin to go down. Not until the supply is greater than the demand.

For eight years after our Civil War prices were much higher than they are now. Compare our Civil War to the great World War and make your calculations as to how long it will take for a complete adjustment of the world's affairs, when it took us eight years after our little family row to begin to get normal. Years will come and go and prices may still soar to higher levels. Everybody must produce their full capacity to create a surplus, and practically nobody is doing it. Supply and demand rules the prices. Short supply means higher prices. The supply grows shorter all the time and the demand is growing all the time. As lower prices in the near future are an impossibility, we want to call your attention to our big collection of

Loom End Calicoes, Percals, Cheviots, Gingham, Suitings, Indian Heads, Romper Cloth, Nainsook, Long Cloth, Plaid Dress Goods, Silks, White Goods, India Linons, Organdies, Voils,

That have been bought especially for this sale and will be sold at less than the cost to make on today's market. BESIDES OUR LOOM ENDS, every short length, odds and ends and broken lots, from every department will be out on tables with red tags on them, priced away below cost of production. Buy what you need for a year or more, either off the Loom End counter or out of stock, you make money both ways.

Remember the date, be on hand the first day and you may be able to get everything you need.
